I bogen New Public Leadership viser forfatterne en anderledes ledelsestilgang i den offentlige sektor. I stedet for mere styring, er der snarere behov for en bedre styringskultur og et stærkere lederskab, der kan sætte en strategisk retning. Med udgangspunkt i de offentlige kerneopgaver skal der skabes værdi med fokus på den samfundsmæssige bundlinje. Effektstyring er nøgleordet med antagelsen om, at den offentlige sektor bør indrettes med sigte på den virkning, man ønsker at opnå – til gavn for det fælles bedste.

Bogen henvender sig til ledere og konsulenter i den offentlige sektor, der søger efter måder at skabe sammenhængende udvikling og forandring på, men også til ledelsestænkere der arbejder med denne sektor.
