Das Motto steht bei jeder Fasnacht im Mittelpunkt. It wasn't until the latter part of the 17th century that it took on its current meaning of 'establish a relaxed relationship in socially awkward situations'; for example, Samuel Butler's Hudibras, 1678: A few hundred years ago, in many European countries, children were to send them away to live and work for someone else. It's not surprising that many people think the quote "Spare the rod and spoil the child" comes from the Bible. According to Geoffrey's genealogy of the British dynasty, Leir's reign would have occurred around the 8th century BC, around the time of the founding of Rome.
